

Sendas del Mar

Taxis from the Airport - Ixtapa-Zihuatanejo:

It's not necessary to rent a car, there are Taxis available as well. Taxis from the airport will take you directly to Barra de Potosi and Sendas del Mar. The fare is approximately US$35 one way plus tip. Tell the cabdriver that Sendas del Mar is in Barra de Potosi at the big terracota wall with wooden gates just past the school. Ring the brass bell when you arrive.

Driving from Zihuatanejo:

Drive south out of town on the main road (Mex 200), first going up the hill with topiary trees in the median and then downhill towards Acapulco and the airport. After the road flattens out, there is a sign and a left turn towards Acapulco. This is easy to miss since the main part of the road seems to go straight. If you do miss it and go straight, you go to the Zihuatanejo airport.

After making the left turn, you still are on Mex 200 and soon pass through the small town of Coacoyul. Three miles from the turn, there is a Pemex on the right. Three miles further, you cross a small bridge at the small village of Los Achotes. Immediately after the speed bump, turn right into the village and proceed on that road for about 4 miles as it winds towards the coast. It deadends at the Playa Blanca beach road where you turn left. Proceed for about one mile until you pass the schools. Sendas del Mar is immediately past; you will recognize it by the long terracota wall and immense wood gate. Ring the bell to call our managers. Driving time from Zihuatanejo is a bit less than 35 minutes.

Driving from the Airport - Ixtapa-Zihuatanejo:

Exit the airport on the divided road that goes north towards Zihuatanejo. In about one half mile, there is an exit lane to the right. Take it; it leads about one mile and then deadends at Mex 200 with a Pemex station on the right. Take a right at Mex 200 and go south for about three miles until you cross a small bridge at the village of Los Achotes. Immediately after the speed bump by the bridge, turn right into the village and proceed on that road for about 4 miles as it winds towards the coast. It dead ends at the Playa Blanca beach road where you turn left. Proceed for about one mile until you pass the schools. Sendas del Mar is immediately past; you will recognize it by the long terracota wall and wooden gate. Ring the bell to call our managers. Driving time from the airport is 15-20 minutes.
